

Fog

Carl Sandburg

The fog comes
on little cat feet.

It sits looking
over harbor and city
on silent haunches
and then moves on.

RECALL:

When have you come across short sentences this year? Why did the author use them?

LO: Identify the purpose of the style.

Some will even consider how it makes them feel.

Some will explain the affect it has on the reader.

Most will explain why the author has done this.

All will identify the unusual structure of the poem.

The fog comes
on little cat feet.

It sits looking
over harbor and city
on silent haunches
and then moves on.
