

Fog

Carl Sandburg

The fog comes
on little cat feet.

It sits looking over harbor and city
on silent haunches
and then moves on.

RECALL:

Can you summarize the poem in one sentence, in a phrase, in one word?

What is a blueprint?

LO: Blueprint.

- Some will even explain how their pictures reflect the cat's/the reader's feelings when looking/thinking about city life.
- Some will use their inference to draw what they think the cat would see.
- Most will draw pictures and identify key features.
- All will summarise the poem.

The fog comes
on little cat feet.

It sits looking
over harbor and city
on silent haunches
and then moves on.

1. Draw two pictures:

- Draw a picture of the cat. Read the poem carefully so you accurately draw the way it is sitting.

- Draw what the cat can see. Retrieve what it can see and use your invoice (what do you think the cat would see when looking at a city and harbor).

2. Label the two pictures with the features that Carl uses.

For example: short lines, unusual vocabulary.
