Task 1:

Read what you wrote on Monday.

Tell me one thing that you are proud of.

For example:

In my poem, I am proud of ... because ...

In my song, I am proud of...because...

In my newspaper article, I am proud of...because...

.....

.....

Task 2: Check your spelling.

1. Underline words that you think you might have misspelt.
2. Follow these steps:
 - Sound out the word - have you included all the sounds?
 - Look for a root word that might be in this word.
 - Is there a prefix or a suffix? Have you spelt this correctly?
 - Should the word have any silent letters?
 - Does the word have any particular spelling patterns?
 - Is the word a homophone (sounds the same but spelt differently and means something different). For example: there, their and they're.
3. Finally, check in a dictionary/speak to someone at home.

Task 3: What have you achieved? Can you tick everything off?

The text you wrote makes sense.

You included facts.

Each sentence starts with a capital letter and ends with a full stop.

Your pictures are clear and neat.

Task 4: Change one part of your project and explain to me why you made this change.

CHALLENGE: Can you make a change which makes your project more unusual or creative? Explain what you did and why you did it.

As a result of....., my project is now more because.....
